No. 07-cv-02928-LAK
Young et al v. General Motors Investment Management Corporation et al.,
Case No. 1:07-cv-01994-BSJ

Dear Judge Kaplan:

I represent the plaintiffs in the above-referenced matters. Mr. Timothy A. Duffy of Kirkland & Ellis LLP represents General Motors Investment Management Corporation ("GMIMCo") in both matters and Mr. Wilbur H. Boies of McDermott Will & Emery represents State Street Bank & Trust Company ("State Street") in both matters. GMIMCo and State Street are the only named defendants.

I have conferred with Messrs. Duffy and Boies regarding the two matters. We agree that the matters are sufficiently similar (same defendants, same theories of liability, and close fact patterns, albeit different pension plans and different plan sponsors) that substantial economies would be realized by coordinating the matters in some fashion. Accordingly, I am writing on behalf of the parties to ask the Court to reassign Brewer to Judge Jones, the presiding judge on the earlier-filed Young matter, for such coordination as Judge Jones deems appropriate.

April 24, 2007, The Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan

Counsel for the parties are, of course, available to discuss our request at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully,

Gregory Y. Porter
